

Great Expectations: Helping your child with special needs succeed!

A free parent training conference for families of children with disabilities in the Baltimore-Metro region

A.M. Breakout Sessions

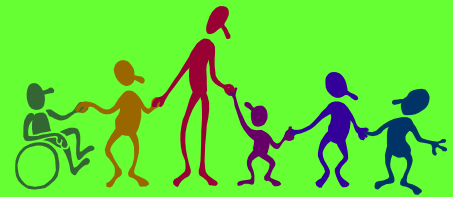

- * Implementing the Extended IFSP (Individualized Family Service Plan) Option for Families
- * What to Do When the Money is Gone: Finding Resources (to be repeated in the afternoon)
- * Transition 101
- * Understanding High School Assessments and Graduation Requirements for students with IEPs

Free Continental Breakfast & Lunch

Resource Displays / Meet Community Providers

P.M. Breakout Sessions

- * Parents' Basic Rights in the Special Education Process
- * Community Works: Locating and hiring college students studying in health related fields, to work as caregivers for children and young adults with developmental disabilities
- * What to Do When the Money is Gone: Finding Resources (repeated from morning session)
- * Creating Resilience in Your Child or Teen with Behavioral Challenges

Saturday,
April 17, 2010
9 am—3 pm

Baltimore City College High School
3320 The Alameda
Baltimore, MD 21218

Registration is required and limited
Please call by April 8.

Contact Baltimore City Public Schools Partners for Success at 410-396-8995 or email Deliscia Casey-Pack at dCasey-Pack@bcps.k12.md.us or Marsha Robinson at MRobinson@bcps.k12.md.us